

LA FOLLETTE IS FIGHTING YET

Ekern Now Says He Will Be A Candidate For Speaker Of The Legislature.

SENATOR STIRS UP HIS FOLLOWERS

Home For The Christmas Recess He Takes Active Hand In The State Political Game Once More-- Means To Fight To End.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Madison, Wis., Dec. 27.—The return of Senator R. M. La Follette from Washington for the holiday recess has served to stiffen the spines of some of his followers in Wisconsin. One of the results of the return of the chief is the announcement of Herman L. Ekern of Trempealeau county that he not only has not withdrawn from the canvass for the speakership of the assembly but he has received such assurance of support that he believes he will be elected. The other leading candidate is R. W. Le Roy of Marinette, protégé of ex-Congressman "Ike" Stephenson. As "Uncle Ike" is reputed to be the financial making of the political success of La Follette in this state, Mr. Ekern found it difficult to round up the followers of La Follette against Le Roy, and the latter seemed a certainty for the speakership, with a good record in the legislature, strong following by reputed La Follette men and the out-and-out backing of Governor Davidson and State Chairman Connor. From close friends of Mr. Ekern it was learned two weeks ago that he would shortly withdraw from the race for the speakership. This information leaked out and was published. The junior senator hastened to Wisconsin as soon as he had formulated and introduced his railroad bill, and Mr. Ekern made his unexpected announcement of determination to remain in the race. The secret is that La Follette saw in the prospective withdrawal of Ekern the disintegration of his organization in Wisconsin, and the situation was far more critical than has been imagined. If Mr. Ekern made no fight, the election of speaker might go to the Connor candidate without a contest and that would mean that La Follette's people are little potes in the coming legislature. The Connor people claim that this is just the case, but the La Follette people have let it be known that there will be plenty of fighting. An interesting element of the close fighting is the scramble among La Follette followers for some rich federal patronage which he has to bestow, including the appointments of pension agent, United States marshal and other desirable salaried positions. It is said that these were all promised prior to the state platform convention in connection with the state chairmanship election, but the promises failed to deliver the votes and La Follette can now use the offices again to round up votes for the organization of the legislature.

WHEN CONGRESS REASSEMBLES. Should our Representatives get that desired increase in salary, perish the thought that they should feel in duty bound to increase their quota of talk.

JUDGE DISCHARGED WOMAN WHEN THE CASE IS CALLED

Mrs. Jeanne Trautman Is Completely Cleared Of Charge Brought Against Her.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] New York, Dec. 27.—Mrs. Jeanne Trautman, wife of a prominent physician and surgeon in this city, was vindicated in the police court today of the charge of larceny preferred by Peter J. Hogan who caused her arrest on Christmas Eve in front of a Fifth Avenue store. Hogan was arrested on the charge of assault preferred by Mrs. Trautman. The case has attracted wide attention because of the social prominence of Mrs. Trautman and showing the indignities to which an innocent woman may be subjected on the accusation of a person who may or may not be responsible. After a consultation between various parties it was decided not to press the charge of assault against Hogan on the grounds he is not mentally responsible. Hogan was discharged.

Freight is being accepted as usual. The firemen through Jos. Bedford, grievance chairman of this district declare they will tie up all the Harriman and connecting systems completely.

Kansas Farmers Round-Up

Manhattan, Kas., Dec. 27.—Almost every pursuit of Kansas citizens, in country and farm life, is represented at the state farmers' institute, which opened today under the auspices of the State Agricultural college. During the next week or ten days there will be meetings of the state dairy association, corn breeders' association, good roads association, and the several state associations of pure bred cattle breeders. At the different meetings interesting papers on all subjects pertaining to agriculture and stock breeding will be read. A corn exhibit and a display of improved road making machinery and creamery and dairy apparatus is a feature of the gathering.

KANSAS POPULISTS BURY THEMSELVES

Party Leaders Met in Topeka Today to Take Action on Disorganization.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Topeka, Kas., Dec. 27.—The populist party in Kansas, or the remnant of the once-powerful political organization that twice succeeded in carrying the state, has been given a decent burial, following the certificate of death filed in the shape of the 1,100 populist votes cast at the recent election. Pursuant to the call of Chairman Hanna of the state committee a handful of the party leaders gathered in conference here today to take steps to disband the party formally and to wind up its affairs. If the wishes of Chairman Hanna are carried out the former populists will now ally themselves regularly with the republican organization.

GOVERNMENT NEEDS TEACHERS IN EAST

Many Who Went to Philippines Have Been Married or Are on Retired List.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Washington, D. C., Dec. 27.—If there is any district school teacher in the United States who has not yet "done time" in the Philippines he or she has the opportunity to obtain the position by taking the examinations slated to be held today and tomorrow in various parts of the country. Nearly all of the teachers who have gone out to the islands during the past few years have either come home or married and retired and so the government is greatly in need of a hundred or more teachers to take their places. Fifty will be appointed at entrance salaries of $1200 and the remainder at smaller amounts. The teachers will be required to go to the islands under two years' contract.

BRIDAL COUPLE TO BE MISSIONARIES

Young Minister and Former Porto Rican Worker Married—Will Go to China.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Detroit, Mich., Dec. 27.—The Methodist missionary field in China soon will have two recruits as a result of a marriage which took place this afternoon in the Central M. E. church of this city. The bridegroom was Rev. William A. Lovett, until recently associate pastor of the church, and the bride, Miss Catherine Long of Boise, Idaho. Mr. Lovett determined last fall to enter the missionary field after hearing an address by Bishop J. W. Bashford. About the same time he first met Miss Long, who had had two years of missionary experience in Porto Rico and who was studying at the normal training school here to fit herself more thoroughly for missionary work. The couple plan to leave for China early in February.

GENERAL CARTER STRIKES BLOW AT NEW MEASURE

Commander Of The Department Of The Lakes Not Pleased With The Plan Of Promotion.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Chicago, Dec. 27.—In his annual report Brig. General Wm. H. Carter, commander of the department of the lakes, speaks of the noticeable feeling of unrest among the officers of the regular army stationed within his department. The report says: "During the last year my attention has been frequently attracted by what may be termed a serious spirit of unrest among the officers, brought on mainly by public discussions of the proposed measures for eliminations of promotion by selection. However desirable may be the measures the design to bring about the selection of the best qualified for the advancement or prevention of promotion for those believed to be unfit for further command. The army is certainly against this enactment. The impression has been forced upon them that officers as a body, particularly those of line, while recognizing the desirability of providing promotion for exceptionally meritorious men, are unwilling to trust their careers to boards of officers, who of necessity must base their conclusions upon personal acquaintance, or efficiency reports, which latter are not regarded as accurate indexes of their character or qualification."

WISCONSIN PEDAGOGUES THROUGH THE CREAM CITY

Many From Janesville Attending State Convention--Other Meetings Of School Teachers.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Milwaukee, Wis., Dec. 27.—The fifty-fourth annual meeting of the Wisconsin Teachers' association got under way today with an attendance of pedagogues numbering in the hundreds and representing every nook and corner of the state.

The convention will be in session three days. The main sessions are to be given over to the consideration of general topics of education, with addresses and papers by distinguished educators of Wisconsin and neighboring states. State Superintendent C. P. Cary of Madison, Rev. Jenkin Lloyd Jones of Chicago, W. E. Webster of Minneapolis, J. N. Larned of Buffalo, Bishop Schinner of Superior, President Van Hise of the University of Wisconsin, and L. D. Harvey of Monmouth are some of the notables whose names appear on the program.

In addition to the general sessions there will be numerous sectional or departmental meetings devoted to the discussions of subjects of special interest to the superintendents and supervising principals, the college, normal and high school teachers, the instructors in mathematics, domestic science, physical training, manual training, music and other branches of education.

Jenkin Lloyd Jones. At the State Teachers' convention Jenkin Lloyd Jones, urged a closer union of the public schools, libraries and museums. He said the greatest economic discovery of the age is the value of combination over competition in the higher interests of life. President Sims urged the teachers to make leaders out of the pupils. He said that individualism must stay above socialism. Prof. Van Hise said the state university helps every one, especially the farmers. He urged a model school for teaching a profession at Madison. Bishop Schinner said education without religion can only be negative in result.

Southern Educators. Montgomery, Ala., Dec. 27.—Montgomery has thrown her gates wide open in welcome to the scores of distinguished educators and others who have arrived for the seventeenth annual convention of the Southern Educational association. The attendance of visitors is increased by the presence of many fair delegates to the annual convention of the Southern Association of College Women, to be held simultaneously with the educational meeting. Arrangements have been made to accommodate in private houses those visitors who prefer this mode of living during their stay in Montgomery. The plan for the social entertainment of the visitors is of the most perfect and elaborate character.

The formal opening of the educational convention takes place this evening and the sessions will continue over Friday and Saturday. President John W. Abernethy of the University of Alabama will call the gathering to order and deliver his annual address as president of the association. Governor Jelks, Superintendent Hill and Secretary Sayre will welcome the visitors, for whom residences will be made by President G. R. Glenn of Dahlonega, and others. Tomorrow morning will be devoted to reports of educational progress in southern states, to be presented by the state superintendents or their representatives. Friday evening the educators will be addressed by President Craighead of Tulane university and Miss Martha Barry of Georgia. The program arranged for Saturday morning provides for numerous papers, among them the following: "Technical Training in Secondary Schools," President Stephens of Louisiana; "Some Rural School Problems," Superintendent Jordan of Arkansas; "The High School in the State System," Professor Stewart of Georgia; "Libraries and Schools," President Baskette of Tennessee.

Saturday evening Mrs. Patterson of North Carolina will speak of the work of school improvement associations in the south, and President Mullins of Kentucky will deliver an address on Greek and modern ideals in education. During the afternoon of each day sessions will be held by the several departments of the association.

AMERICAN SHIPPING
NEXT ON THE LISTCongress Will Have an Opportunity to Learn the President's Views

Very Soon.

(Special Correspondence.)

Washington, D. C., December 27.—In view of the fact that the message of President Roosevelt on the condition of American shipping, which he will send to congress when it reconvenes, is likely to prove the last official utterance on this subject on the part of the administration, both the friends and opponents of the shipping bill are awaiting it with interest. The message will reach congress only a few days before the House Committee on Merchant Marine votes on the bill and the vote in the committee will indicate pretty clearly what disposition will be made of the bill by the house.

An interesting memorandum has been prepared for the use of the President in this connection, drawing his attention to two combinations of foreign ship owners, one in our trade on the east coast of South America, and the other in the trade between our Pacific coast and Europe. The existence of these two combinations is of extreme interest to the Pacific Slope and to the Middle West, because these combinations thrive principally through the high freight rates upon the products of the farmers of the great middle West.

One of these combinations has its headquarters in Liverpool and controls the business of the United States with Brazil and the River Plate countries—Uruguay and Argentina. The other, composed of British, French and German steamship owners, with headquarters in London, controls the carrying of grain from Washington, Oregon and California around Cape Horn to Great Britain and the Continent. The frankly hostile character of this latter combination or "trust" is evidenced by the fact that its inflated freight rates are made to apply only to American cargoes. European goods shipped outward to the Pacific Coast being exempted by the rules of the combination. A copy of these rules, dated from Leadenhall Buildings, London, has been laid before President Roosevelt.

The other foreign shipping trust, which monopolizes the steamship traffic between New York and South America, is also an international affair, chiefly British and German. There is not one American ship in either "combine." This Anglo-German trust is bitterly fighting the ship subsidy bill, as it very naturally does not want any competition from Americans. Marked copies of a New York paper devoted to commercial topics, which is regarded as the special organ of the trust, and whose columns are filled with advertisements of foreign shipping, are mailed at frequent intervals to members of the House of Representatives. In super-heated editorials and Washington dispatches, all who favor government assistance in the tremendous undertaking of establishing and building up independent lines of American vessels, to compete for this business, are denounced as "traitors," "thieves," "beggars," etc. In view of the fact that the republican party in its platforms has committed itself to assistance for the merchant marine, and the President with Secretaries Root, Bonaparte, Shaw, McCall and Cortelyou, favor such assistance, the application of such terms to such men is a trifle discourteous, to say the least.

AGED WOMAN HAS A

VERY NARROW CALL

Mrs. Mary Meagher Has Narrow Escape From Death on Tuesday.

Mrs. Mary Meagher had a narrow escape on Christmas morning from death by suffocation at her home 110 Caroline street. Dr. Chittenden was called by her neighbor, Mrs. Meagher, who called about ten o'clock Christmas morning to wish Mrs. Meagher a "Merry Christmas." On opening the door the escaping gas was noticed and realizing that something serious was happening the neighbor immediately gave the alarm. The widow was then broken and on entering the house the aged woman was discovered unconscious on her bed. Dr. Chittenden was called and worked over Mrs. Meagher for several hours before she recovered consciousness. He said that in ten minutes more the gas would have overcome her that she could not have recovered. Mrs. Meagher is eighty-two years old and has resided in Janesville for many years. She lives in a double house, the other part of which is occupied by William Knorr and family. Mrs. Meagher owns the house herself. Her many friends visited her on Christmas and did all that was possible to give her help and comfort.

When the crisis moment came, you will be delighted if you have Mrs. Austin's Panacea for breakfast.

WISCONSIN WEATHER FORECAST

THE THIRD TERM

An organization has recently been formed in Chicago, known as the Roosevelt, Third Term National League, and an effort will be made by the promoters to extend its influence to all parts of the country.

A platform sets forth a dozen reasons, or more, why President Roosevelt should succeed himself. One of them reads:

"We view with alarm the evils already grown from the abuse of corporate power and see in these evils a fertile field for the demagogue, from which might readily spring a political and social revolution, and believe that nothing short of temperate and prayerful solicitude, on the part of the people, will hold our political and social structure intact."

Two or three others are as follows: "To the people irrespective of party lines is due the credit that their President, today, is Theodore Roosevelt. A new era of real freedom and vitality in our institutions of government and politics was demanded, and they wisely saw in him a means to attain it."

"So valiantly and wholeheartedly has this man reflected the wishes of the people, that his personality has entered into and become a part of every department of our national life. He has won the confidence of the people; and this fact alone, makes him the most potent factor in the solution of the present disturbing conditions. To eliminate this personality—which is to eliminate that confidence—at a time when the people, as a whole, are restive and trembling with apprehension, is to invite national disaster."

"So closely woven is this bond between the President and the people, that he has become to them a public necessity, an essential part of things in the social and political fabric. Therefore, Theodore Roosevelt is not only the one logical candidate for nomination, but manifestly is the only logical President for the people."

Edward A. Horner, formerly of Leadville, Colo., who says he is a "red hot" democrat driven to the verge of bankruptcy by the machinations of the "system," is the organizer. The first meeting was held Tuesday night, at which the fifteen men to whom invitations had been sent elected the following officers and directors:

President—Edward A. Horner. Vice presidents—Milton F. Hosmer, Boston; George Noxon, Chicago. Secretary and treasurer—E. C. Hayek.

Assistant secretary—George P. Locke. Directors—R. M. Shane and William Frank Robinson, both of Chicago.

Mr. Horner in speaking of the organization said:

"It is not our purpose to appeal to politicians. In fact, we don't want any of them. It is to be a matter which is to come directly from the people, and for myself I don't care whether President Roosevelt likes it or not. To my mind he has nothing to say about it. He is the only man in whom the people have absolute and implicit confidence. We know he is honest; his actions have demonstrated it beyond cavil."

While this may be a popular movement, it is nevertheless erratic, and will be so considered by thoughtful people. Mr. Roosevelt's popularity today is due in some measure to the fact that he can not be accused of being a grandstand player, because of his emphatic declaration on the third-term proposition. He enjoys all the honors possible to confer on an American citizen, and his ambition for office has been realized.

That the President enjoys the love and confidence of the people, will not be questioned, but the fact should not be overlooked that we are an impulsive race. Our heroes are on the crest of the wave today, and engulfed in the tide tomorrow.

When Dewey came back from Manila, the great crowd stood in line in New York, from six o'clock in the morning, until three in the afternoon, and then cheered when a cloud of dust rolled by with the great naval commander in the center, while the people from every corner of the land paid him homage. Six months later his name and presence attracted but little attention.

It might be difficult to tell just when President Roosevelt reached the zenith of popularity, but there is an undercurrent of opposition today, that did not exist during the earlier years of his administration, and it is far from being political.

The first sentence quoted from the platform of the new league, explains, to some extent, the cause for this opposition. The nation is suffering today, not from the abuse of corporate power, but from demagoguery, developed and incited by frenzied discussion and frantic appeals on the part of fanatical reformers.

The President realized, when he wrote his message, that the pace was too rapid, and that it was time to apply the brakes. While he was the great leader in the reform movement, it has passed beyond his control, and he recognized the danger of intemperate agitation.

President Roosevelt is a man who does things, and for this the people admire him, but he is impulsive and his radical policy results in making enemies, as was the case in California, and Brownsville, while the Panama canal is something of a nightmare.

When the league assumes that he is the one and only man capable of filling the executive chair, it makes of him a czar, and the people seethe.

The darkest day that ever came to the nation, was the day when Lincoln was assassinated. The people loved him as they never loved a president, and in every home there was the sense of personal loss.

The nation was bankrupt, as the result of four years' war. Many perplexing questions were to be settled, and Lincoln was the one and only man who could grasp the situation.

"Andy" Johnson, his successor, was cleverly hated by the people, and dark forebodings were heard on every hand.

But when Garfield stood before the mob in New York, and captured them by the statement, "God reigns and the government still lives," there came to the people hope and courage, and the work went on.

Should Roosevelt be taken away, there would be no backward step, and should he adhere to his declaration, not to be a candidate, as he will, the progress of the nation will not be retarded.

The freight car congestion is still a menace to the country, and the railroads seem unable to remedy it.

The claim is made that the shippers are largely at fault and that the average car is idle nine days in unloading. The suggestion has been made that the railroads form a pool and own all the cars in common. This might give some relief and save the Interstate Commerce commission some worry, but how about the wicked combine?

The New River Coal Company, of Boston, owns 60,000 acres of anthracite coal lands, mostly undeveloped. It has thirty-one mines in operation two days in the week, with a daily output of from 7,000 to 8,000 tons.

The claim is made that the company could produce 25,000 tons per day, if cars could be secured to handle it. The mines are connected by fifty miles of railroad tracks, but with no direct outlet to tidewater.

The dividends and interest payable between the first and fifteenth of January, amount to $180,000,000. That seems like a lot of money, but aside from the banks, and a few high grade stocks the dividends run from one to four per cent. It takes money to run large business interests and much of the capital invested is poorly paid.

"Bleeding Kansas" has an income this year in grain and live stock of $425,000,000. The state is so busy saving wood that populism and all other "isms" are lost in the shuffle. Things were different ten years ago, when William Allen White wrote his famous editorial on "What's the Matter with Kansas."

White is still in Emporia, but he finds no cause for complaint today.

Milwaukee appears to be, holding her own. The crop of babies this year is about 8,000, with 100 more boys than girls. The cream city will be a good place for the girls to visit in about twenty years. President Roosevelt has no occasion to worry about Milwaukee.

The mushroom city of Goldfield has decreased in population from 15,000 to 7,000 in a week. Many business houses have closed. The trouble is the result of a strike called by the Industrial Workers of the World. What the final result will be is difficult to determine.

The telephone girls of Cincinnati, numbering 600, were presented with $10,000 by the Bell company as a pleasant reminder of Christmas. The present represented six per cent of the salaries paid.

Montana claims to have 32,000 square miles of coal lands, mostly undeveloped. This ought to supply the Pacific states with coal for some time to come.

A Complaint. Well, another Christmas comes; another Christmas goes; the day ideal; our great and good people spent the day trying to do all people good, the other three hundred and sixty-four days will be spent trying to do them.

ALDERMEN LOOK FOR THAT FIVE DOLLARS

Tomorrow Evening's Session of the Council Promises to Be a Merry One.

According to an opinion which it is said was drawn up by M. G. Jeffris at the request of City Attorney H. L. Maxfield, every member of the present council is entitled to five dollars for each meeting they attended during the past year.

It is probable that if such an opinion is given to the council at the adjourned session of the council tomorrow evening the nine aldermen who are liable to be present will promptly vote to draw that five and then proceed to sit down and figure up how much back pay the holdovers will receive from the city treasury.

These five holdovers, Brockhaus, Fish, Hager, Connel and Dulin, have been forced thus far to give the services to the city since last spring's session, without any pay for their valuable presence while the newcomers, Watt, Buchholz and Rudolph, and the others re-elected, Merritt and Hager, have received their little pay for enacting wise city ordinances for civic government.

There has been much discussion on this subject and the decision by Mr. Jeffris is said to clear all doubt as to the legality of all the aldermen receiving the five for each meeting they attend.

Among the other business that may come up Friday night is the question of repealing the Sunday closing of the theatre. It is probable that this measure will be defeated.

It is presented despite the fact that the five aldermen were said to be pledged to the passage of the measure last Sunday, when the idea was attacked by the ministers in their Sunday sermons.

AVON BOY IS SAID TO BE A DESERTER

Gives His Name as Edward Swenson When He Surrenders to Ohio Army Officers.

Claiming to be Edward Swenson of Avon, Wis., and admitting he was a deserter from the regular army, a man has surrendered to the regular army officers at Bellefontaine, Ohio.

Swenson says he deserted from the regular army a year ago and that he is tired of being a fugitive and wants to be punished for his act. He was in time of peace is not a serious offense and usually results in a imprisonment in some army post for the remainder of the term of enlistment and then being given a bob tail discharge. Some times the men are returned to their regiments after a short sentence has been served and re-enter the ranks again.

WANTS COUNCIL TO VACATE 3 STREETS

Mrs. Edna Dick Files Petition to this Effect With City Clerk.

Mrs. Edna Dick has filed an application to come before the next meeting of the council for the vacating of the streets in the First ward. The streets are all on hand bought by Mr. A. B. Dick of Chicago to build a home on.

Mr. Dick is the son-in-law of C. B. Withington of this city and is the head of the A. B. Dick Manufacturing Company, makers of Edison mimeographs.

Mr. Dick desires to have these streets vacated if possible in order to lay out the grounds about his house which he intends to build.

MRS. HIBBARD AT NATIVE THEATRE

WHAT IS CONSIDERED THE PROPER ENTERTAINMENT IN JAPAN.

WRITES OF HER EXPERIENCE

Interesting Insight Into the Life of the Islanders is Written to Her Mother.

Mrs. Susie Lowell Hibbard has written her mother, Mrs. E. W. Lowell, a most interesting letter on her visit to a Japanese theatre recently. Through the courtesy of Mrs. Lowell the letter is being printed for the benefit of its readers. The letter is as follows:

My Dear Mom: I had an interesting new experience last night in my first visit to a Japanese theatre. The occasion was a semi-amateur performance in which some Waseda University people were interested. So Mr. Walter (who is living with us only until his rooms in the Waseda dormitory are done) bought two tickets and took me with him. The inside of the theatre, the pit, was divided off into small square compartments holding about six Japanese and surrounded by a rail some a foot and a half high.

Mr. W. called the effect of all these people sitting on the floor in all these various squares a combination of the stockyards and an old Puritan meeting house. Leading up to the stage from the rear entrance on either side is a wide aisle above the level of the floor on which the people sit. Actors enter from here as well as from the wings. Our seats were in the first gallery and we were given chairs.

The air was blue with the tobacco smoke of not only the men, but the gaily gowning women, and there were enough Japanese and other wise, going on to turn one's stomach if he were inclined to be squeamish. The thing commenced at 5 p. m. and was over at eleven. There were three plays with a stop of fifteen minutes between the first and second. The first was historical in the time of Hideyoshi and after. The funny feature about it, one which it took no need of a knowledge of the Japanese language to see, was a wonderful white horse and a wonderful back ditto composed of men. I could understand practically nothing of the speaking in that. The next was the trial scene from the Merchant of Venice. That could follow of course. Shylock was fine, so was Lancelotti Gobbo. The last scene was an opera, which seems to have been quite new. The old myth of the Sun Goddess going into her cave and the light being gone from earth and the wives of the people to get it. The dark, the first, the weird music, and all were very interesting but the whole thing lacked fire touches. We ate our rice and eels with chop sticks just as all the rest did, and didn't get home until almost morning. We smelled to the heavens of tobacco smoke, too, when we had finished."

WILL NOT DEFRAUD FOR A FEW YEARS

Bunco Produce Buyer Who Once Operated in Rock County Now Behind Prison Bars.

Raisers of poultry and other produce in Rock county will be interested in the following from "The Backer," a trade journal, many in this vicinity having had dealings with the subject of the article:

"When F. B. Warner was recently found guilty of cheating and swindling and passing worthless checks and was sentenced to the Iowa penitentiary for one year, the Iowa penitentiary, one of the shrewdest security details that ever operated in the produce business was put out of the way where he would be able to work his bunco game on shippers of poultry, butter and eggs throughout the country for some time to come. It now appears that Warner had a well laid plan and had been interested directly and indirectly in many deals in different parts of the country and it is now considered probable that he has had training under the notorious Mulhall and other celebrated crooks who have been a menace to the trade for a long while. The more closely Warner's methods are examined the more conclusively the fact stands out that he has been one of the most persistent, unscrupulous and relentless of hard labor in the Iowa penitentiary. He has been in the Iowa penitentiary for the produce business. Like Bret Harte's 'Heathen Chinee,' Warner was frequently childlike and bland, but there was a subtlety in his very simplicity that frequently baffled the most level-headed business people in sizing him up and in taking the necessary precautions to avoid being skinned. It will be remembered that while operating in Mangum, Okla., Warner got a car of poultry which he shipped and followed the shipment personally and sold the poultry on arrival. Warner left C. A. Hartshorn of Clinton, Wis., down at Mangum as his buyer and promised to send Hartshorn enough money to settle up a number of bills. Hartshorn got instructions from Warner telling him to put a coop of chickens in an empty car and go to the railroad agent and demand a bill of lading which could be easily procured and attach draft on a Chicago poultry house covering a 'car' of poultry which would be honored on presentation. Hartshorn would not stand for such business and immediately 'flow the coop.' However he made Warner send him enough money to pay up some outstanding bills but was unable to get about two months' salary which was due him and the poor fellow had a tough time working his way back home where he has since been engaged in business. It afterwards developed that Warner was trying to get Hartshorn away from this section for the boy knew about too many of Warner's best escapades and Warner was afraid to have him near the scenes of his former operations."

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Frank G. Frost. Died at St. Joseph hospital, Kansas City, Mo., Mrs. Frank G. Frost, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Harlow. The body will arrive in Janesville Friday. Funeral notice will be given later.

John J. Edwards. Janesville friends last evening received the sad tidings of the death at Mendota, Wis., of John J. Edwards, a former well known and highly respected resident of the city. The deceased was born at Sedalia, R. I., Nov. 19, 1819, and while living here was for many years boss machinist at the cotton mill, and later supervising agent of water power. The remains will be brought to Janesville this evening and funeral services will be held from the chapel in Oak Hill cemetery tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock, Rev. J. H. Tippet, officiating.

S. H. Reynolds. One of the best known and most highly esteemed residents of Wichita, Kas., S. H. Reynolds, died the 29th day of November (Thanksgiving day) and was buried in Maple Grove cemetery, Wichita, Kas. Mr. Reynolds was born in Lancaster county, Vermont, Aug. 8, 1829, and in early manhood he moved to Wisconsin and settled in Rock county, and in 1849 he was united in marriage with Miss Lydia Pember, who survives with five children to mourn his departure. The children now living are Benjamin F., Harvey T., Roy F., and Mrs. Jessie Macnealey and Mrs. Ida Farnham of St. Louis. One daughter, Mrs. Josie Farnham, died at Fort Scott and another daughter, Mrs. Pauline Bailey, died at Wichita, where both are buried. Mr. Reynolds in the early fifties bought a farm in Johnston, Rock county, and lived on it until the fall of 1897, when he sold out and with his family moved to the city of Janesville and soon after he engaged in the grocery business with Mr. Ball, remaining with him until about 1872, and later it was Reynolds & Brownell for a while. He then sold out and moved to Wichita, Kas. Mr. Reynolds has been a Baptist for sixty-seven years and was one of the most faithful and active workers in church, and while living in Johnston was a deacon of the church at Emerald Grove and also deacon of Janesville and Wichita. Six of the deacons of the church were pulpituers. The funeral was conducted by his pastor, assisted by Rev. G. W. Casady, a former pastor, both of whom testified to their appreciation of the character, motives and steadfastness of his religious life.

CLASS SAW THE POINT. Professor Was Unfortunate in His Terms of Illustration.

Prof. Lovering, a noted professor of physics, who died several years ago, used to lecture weekly to each class as a whole at some period of its stay at Harvard. Upon his lectures attendance was compulsory, and, consequently, many of his hearers had little interest.

When the class of 1890 has its turn, the professor had become rather old and not inclined to take practical jokes seriously.

It must be acknowledged that this class did fully its share of horse play in class time, with the result that the professor one day gave the men rather a serious lecture on behavior. After his talk he turned to explain an electrical machine, and turning the handle several times, he faced about to the class and continuing his turning of the handle said: "This, gentlemen, as you see, is turned by a strong crank."

This statement, following so closely upon his lecture on deportment, made a decided sensation which did not increase the professor's love for the class.

TAKES AN APPEAL TO THE CIRCUIT COURT

Kotterhorn Case Will Come Up Before the Incoming Judge Grimm in January.

Judge Rosa, of Beloit, this morning ordered the case of the state of Wisconsin vs. Henry Kotterhorn to be taken to the circuit court, an affidavit of prejudice having been filed by W. H. Dougherty, attorney for the plaintiff. Kotterhorn was claimed to have shot at John Nelson of the town of Newark, with intent to kill. It is alleged that Nelson owed Kotterhorn some money and Kotterhorn stopped Nelson on the road one day to ask him when he was going to pay it. In the course of the discussion it is alleged Nelson hit Kotterhorn across the face with his horsewhip. The next time that Kotterhorn went to see about his money it is alleged he took his gun along and when Nelson made some hostile motions it is alleged he shot, not with the intent to hurt Nelson, but, as he claims, merely to frighten him. After this they talked a while about the money. Nelson is the complaining witness in an action against Kotterhorn for assault with intent to kill. Chief of Police Scheibel, of Beloit, came up this morning and got Kotterhorn from the county jail to take him down to Beloit for his trial.

Brightening Up the Graveyard. The patrons of the Clister graveyard met last week and put a very nice wire fence around the lot and made it some larger. Lloyd Recknor bought a very beautiful gate and put it up. It shows off very nicely. We love to see people remember the dead. There will be some fine grave covers put in, of white and bronze, which will add greatly to the beauty of the place. That is one graveyard that is taken care of.—Turkeyfoot, Pa., News.

All Three Guilty. A St. Louis physician telephoned an order to a drug store, which was received by the druggist's son, a boy of 14 years. The boy misunderstood the order and sent an overdose of a drug which killed the doctor's patient. The coroner's jury held the physician, the druggist and the boy responsible for the death.

WILL FIGHT THE WARRANT ISSUED

RICHARD HARVEY IS UNDER ARREST IN EVANSTON, ILL.

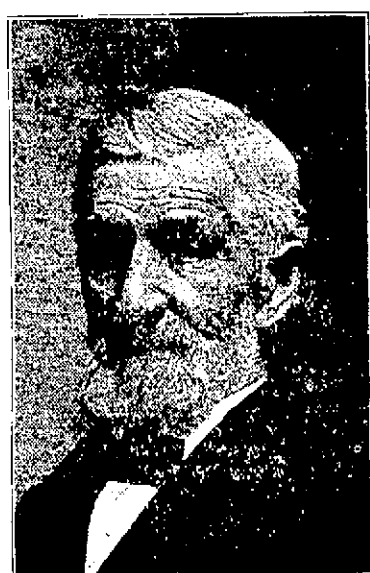

SEEKS REQUISITION PAPERS

District Attorney John L. Fisher in Madison Today to Cinch the Matter.

As a sequel to the mysterious disappearance of twelve-year-old George Wood, from Orfordville, last Friday, Sheriff Cochran went to Evanston, Ill., Wednesday, and had Richard Harvey, uncle of the boy, placed under arrest of a fugitive warrant charging him with complicity in the kidnapping of the youth. Harvey refused to return to Wisconsin without requisition papers and was released on two thousand dollars bail to appear January 5. This noon District Attorney John L. Fisher hastened to Madison to secure the coveted requisition papers which will be served on the governor of Illinois as soon as possible to avoid any unnecessary delay.

Nothing of Boy. While Sheriff Cochran reports having had Harvey arrested nothing is said about the boy George Wood, and it is possible that he has not been located yet. Sheriff Cochran will not return from Chicago until 8:00 tonight and is perhaps delaying his return in hopes of locating him. The warrant for Harvey's arrest was sworn out before Judge Fifield yesterday morning but was not made public until Harvey had been apprehended to avoid any miscarriage of justice.

Same Story. The new features of the kidnapping case throw no new light upon the story of the boy's disappearance printed in last Saturday's Gazette. George Wood was adopted from a Milwaukee home by Justice George Heimbolt of Orfordville, six years ago and was twelve years of age. At the time he was stopped by a woman and two men in a closed carriage Friday he was on his way to his adopted father's office. Detectives traced him to the home of his uncle in Evanston when a warrant for Harvey was sworn out and he was arrested.

The Late Stokley Hutchinson. A pioneer business man of Janesville who passed away last Sunday evening and whose funeral, which was held yesterday, was one of the most largely attended of any held in the city for many months.

TROLLEY LEAGUE IS A NEW POSSIBILITY

Project on Foot to Start Base Ball League on the Interurban Lines.

Now that a Trolley league is a possibility, to be formed by the baseball enthusiasts of cities in northern Illinois and southern Wisconsin, there is a definite movement on foot to place Janesville in the circuit. There was a meeting of representatives from several cities in Chicago, recently, and the prospects are bright for such an organization. If Rockford, Freeport, and Beloit can be induced to go in the league Janesville may have a team.

Rockford, Freeport, LaSalle, Ottawa and Streator had representatives at the meeting. Elgin and Aurora were not represented but they will be at another meeting to be held at Joliet soon. The sentiment expressed at the meeting was such that those present decided to go ahead with the organization and a meeting for the election of officers will be held in January. President Powers of the Wisconsin league and Jack Kearney, manager of the Marquette of Chicago, both were present and looking for the presidency, but the consensus of feeling of those present seemed to be in favor of Bob Welsh, manager of the Spauldings of Chicago, who is slated for the office.

PIG RESENTS BLOW OF HIS MURDERER

Bites Off a Finger When Slayer Turns Him Over to Bleed Him.

Emil Langer of the town of Harmony is nursing a sore hand as the result of a peculiar accident. While butchering hogs yesterday he had his finger bitten off by one. He had stuck the animal, which weighed about two hundred pounds and then was about to turn it over so as to collect the blood. As he turned it over it reached to one side and bit off the first joint of his index finger on his left hand. Dr. Sutherland was called and was forced to amputate part of the finger.

THREE PEARLS ARE INDEED VALUABLE

Man Well Known in Janesville Has Three That Are Worth Ten Thousand Dollars!

Wm. Moore, the veteran pearl buyer, well known in Janesville, has in his possession three of the finest pearls ever shown in a group that came from the Mississippi river near Prairie du Chien. The three weigh together nearly 70 grains and are of quality and fire-like lustre is something that cannot be described, but must be seen to be appreciated. The three smaller pearls average about 21 grains, globose shape, and the larger is a high fine shape button with great brilliancy than a diamond. Mr. Moore sets no price on the gems as their value increases as fine pearls grow scarcer, but $8,000 to $10,000 might be a fair estimate.

COLORADO MOB OF LYNCHERS FOILED

STORM LAS ANIMAS JAIL BUT FAIL TO GET PRISONER.

SEEK TO KILL A MURDERER

He Had Slain a Well-Known Farmer, Beating Him with a Hammer and Then Cutting His Throat.

Las Animas, Col., Dec. 27.—After several hours of diligent effort at storming the county jail here, a mob which gathered after dark Wednesday for the purpose of avenging the death of Henry Lavenmeyer, a well-known farmer near here, who was murdered in a most brutal way by a tramp, dispersed, and it is not thought that further attempts will be made at present to carry out the plan of vengeance.

The mob worked its way into the jail as far as the steel doors by breaking down the wooden doors, but met with a stern refusal by the jail keepers to turn over the prisoner, and finally gave up.

When apprehended the murderer gave his name as Lawrence Leberg. Many believe him to be insane.

His Crime Was Brutal

Leberg's crime was inhuman. Alighting from a Santa Fe freight train Tuesday afternoon at Robinson station, near this city, he crossed the river and secured a meal from a farmer named Purvis. When he finished eating, he demanded lodging, but was refused because of his abusive language. Leberg left the Purvis farm and after preparing a camp on the river bank, started back toward Purvis' place. He set fire to a hay stack belonging to Henry Lavenmeyer, thinking it was the property of Purvis. The fire attracted Lavenmeyer, who took Leberg into custody, allowing him to ride behind him on his horse. When Lavenmeyer dismounted to open the gate at his ranch, Leberg struck him on the head with a hammer, which he found tied to the saddle. The farmer fell stunned, and Leberg beat him over the head until he became tired. Then with a pocket knife he cut Lavenmeyer's throat from ear to ear and attempted to scalp him.

Boasted of the Deed

The burning haystack attracted the neighbors to the scene, who found the mutilated body. A posse was formed and Leberg was caught a mile or two away riding Lavenmeyer's horse. He submitted to arrest quietly and even boasted of his crime, saying that he had drunk the blood of his victim.

Leberg was brought here and lodged in jail. At noon Wednesday Sheriff Brown started for Pueblo with his prisoner for better protection, but was met by a crowd of 300 people who protested against Leberg's removal, and he was again placed in jail here. Although there were frequent reports of mobs organizing to dispose of Leberg, not until night did they set about carrying out the work of vengeance. Soon after dark several hundred men and boys appeared at the jail, but were refused admittance. Almost immediately they began the attack on the jail.

TRAGEDY IN ELMIRA JAIL

Man Gives Woman Prisoner Poison and Kills Himself.

Elmira, N. Y., Dec. 27.—Although a guard was standing close beside him Wednesday night, Frank Delaney, a railroad man, succeeded in a bold attempt to end his life and the life of a woman who occupied a cell in the woman's dormitory of the Elmira county jail. The woman was Bessie Wells, awaiting sentence for abducting a young girl and harboring her for immoral purposes.

Delaney possessed a power of attorney for the woman, and when he called at the jail and stated that he wished to consult her regarding the signing of important papers, there was no objection on the part of the warden, who sent a guard along with him. The guard stood close by while the man and woman were conferring together, when suddenly Delaney drew from his pocket a bottle of carbolic acid, and passed it through the bars. The woman seized it and swallowed the contents. Instantly Delaney pressed a second bottle to his own lips. The guard sprang upon him, but the man fought him fiercely for a moment and then collapsed. He died before a physician could be called.

When the door of the cell was unlocked the woman lay unconscious on the floor. She, too, died within a short time.

Pullman Company to Fight

San Antonio, Tex., Dec. 27.—The Pullman company is to file in the federal court of the western district of Texas application for an injunction to restrain the railroad commission of Texas from making a 20 per cent. reduction in sleeping car fares in this state. The principal contention will be that the Pullman company is not a common carrier.

Reelect Indicted Officers

New York, Dec. 27.—After a session lasting two hours the directors of the Mutual Reserve Life Insurance company Wednesday reelected Frederick A. Burnham president and George D. Eldredge vice president. Both are under indictment in connection with the administration of the company's affairs.

Friends of the Murdered Alexander and Draga Renew Their Activity Against Present Dynasty.

Belgrade, Serbia, Dec. 27.—The national assembly finally has accepted the loan and armament bills, which were sent Wednesday for signature to King Peter.

The debate on these measures Wednesday was attended by disorderly scenes on the part of members of the assembly, arising from the open expression of sentiments against the present KaraGeorgevitch dynasty, which gave rise to reports in German and Austrian quarters of a movement to dethrone King Peter. Following the street disorders of the last few days, the occurrences in the chamber have added to the seriousness of the present situation.

The king is at present confronted with many difficult problems, not the least of which is the renewed activity of the supporters of the late King Alexander and Queen Draga, who were murdered the night of June 10-11, 1903, and the popular ill-feeling aroused by the recent escapades of George, the crown prince.

One of the deputies opposed the loan on the ground that the members of the reigning family would personally pocket a large proportion of it, and the final debates brought out anti-dynastic demonstrations in which a number of riotous students sustained serious injuries. Premier Pasic has received a number of threatening letters intimating that the present dynasty will meet a fate similar to that of its predecessors.

The late King Alexander was a member of the Obrenovits family. It is asserted that secret meetings of the anti-dynastic leaders have been held here for the purpose of selecting a European prince as a successor to King Peter in the event of a successful anti-dynastic movement.

MAY SEND FLOUR TO RUSSIA.

Minneapolis Company Said to Be Closing a Big Deal.

Minneapolis, Minn., Dec. 27.—It is rumored that a big deal is about to be closed whereby a Minneapolis company will consign a large quantity of Minneapolis flour for Russian consumption.

The gravity of the Russian situation, as regards the wheat famine, renders the hitherto unheard of condition of American wheat exportation to Russia a necessity. With the creation of the great and urgent demand for wheat comes the demand for flour at a price that makes it possible for American exporters to figure upon a profit in Russian exportation.

The exportation of Minneapolis flour to Russia will be without precedent. Only through the immense shortage in the Russian crop could this condition arise, a shortage so great that Russian flour prices have advanced to a notch where foreign millers can figure upon paying the high import duty plus freight and realizing a fair profit.

BLOODY WORK IN KENTUCKY.

Father and Son Fatally Shot in Feud—Two Other Killings.

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 27.—Hiram Mullins and his son William were shot and fatally wounded in a feud battle fought at their home with a gang of desperadoes, headed by Charles and Bud Little and John Brewer. The house was riddled with bullets, and every window was broken. The battle ceased only when both the Mullins were shot down.

Verdict for Dr. Pierce

AGAINST THE Ladies' Home Journal.

Sending truth after a lie. It is an old maxim that "a lie will travel seven leagues while truth is getting its boots on," and no doubt hundreds of thousands of good people read and were misled and maliciously attacked upon Dr. V. Pierce and his "Favorite Prescription" published in the May 1904 number of the Ladies' Home Journal, with its great black display headings, which never saw the humble, groveling retraction, with its inconspicuous heading, published two months later. It was boldly charged in the standard and libelous article that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for the cure of woman's weaknesses and ailments, contained alcohol and other harmful ingredients. Dr. Pierce promptly brought suit against the publishers of the Ladies' Home Journal, for $200,000 damages.

Dr. Pierce alleged that Mr. Bok, the editor, maliciously published the article containing such false and defamatory matter with the intent of injuring his business; furthermore, that no alcohol, or other "curious" or "habit-forming" drugs are, or ever were, contained in his "Favorite Prescription"; that said medicine is made from native medicinal roots and contains no harmful ingredients whatsoever; and that Mr. Bok's malicious statement was wholly and absolutely false. In the retraction published by the Ladies' Home Journal, it was alleged that the facts were as proven in the trial of the action in the Supreme Court. But the business of Dr. Pierce was greatly injured by the publication of the libelous article with its great display headings, while hundreds of thousands who read the wickedly defamatory article never saw the humble retraction, set in small type and made as inconspicuous as possible. The matter was, however, brought before the jury in the Supreme Court of New York State which promptly rendered a verdict in the Doctor's favor. Thus his readers came to grief and their lives suffered.

"JAPS" AVOIDING HAWAII

MOST OF THEM NOW ARE COMING TO THE UNITED STATES.

Planters in the Islands Are in Serious Need of Laborers, Says Immigration Commissioner Sargeant.

Washington, Dec. 27.—A report on Japanese conditions in the Hawaiian Islands will be made to President Roosevelt by Frank P. Sargeant, commissioner of immigration and naturalization, as a result of his recent visit to the islands.

Commissioner Sargeant Wednesday expressed the opinion that there are fewer Japanese in the Hawaiian Islands now than there were two years ago, a greater number having come to America in that period than arrived in Hawaii.

Miki Saito, the Japanese consul general at Honolulu, intimated to Mr. Sargeant that the Japanese government discouraged its people from coming to the United States because of its knowledge of the conditions existing in this country, especially on the Pacific coast, and it was apprehensive lest the coming here of great numbers of Japanese might induce a prejudice against them that would be embarrassing.

The commissioner of immigration found that the owners of sugar, pineapple and other plantations in the islands are in serious need of labor and many Japanese are coming to the islands to work on them. He says that it is the effort of the Hawaiian planters to diversify their labor, so far as may be possible, not confining it to any one race, but getting people from all quarters of the world.

A second shipload of Portuguese will arrive at Honolulu in a short time and it is probable that these immigrants will make the islands their permanent home. Many more plantations would be operated on the islands if it were possible to obtain the necessary laborers, but up to the present time labor has been scarce. It is expected that the arrival in the islands of European laborers will be a solution of the Hawaiian labor problem.

FAMOUS PILOT IS LOST.

Capt. James E. Lennan Probably Drowned at Juneau, Alaska.

Portland, Ore., Dec. 27.—Capt. Wm. P. Gregory of the United States steamship Heather sends word from Juneau, Alaska, of the probable death by drowning of Capt. James E. Lennan, the pioneer Alaskan pilot. Capt. Lennan was engaged in piloting the Heather in Alaskan waters when that vessel arrived at Juneau, where he disappeared. Lennan is known probably in every prominent seaport in the world. For a quarter of a century he had piloted vessels from Puget Sound north. Of late years he has been the government pilot in Alaskan waters.

Held-up Man Shot Dead.

Pawnee, Okla., Dec. 27.—An unknown man is dead, another perhaps fatally injured, and Fred Springer, a saloonkeeper, severely bruised, as a result of a hold-up Tuesday night. Springer was accosted by two strangers while on his way home. Instead of throwing up his hands as commanded, he opened fire and one of the bandits fell, dying almost instantly. The other may recover. RECKLESS MOB IS BLAMED FOR RIOTS

QUIET NOW PREVAILS AT SCOGBA AND WAHALAK, MISS.

GOVERNOR ON THE SCENE

Excited Negroes, Fearing Violence, Flock to the Town from the Surrounding Country for Protection.

Memphis, Tenn., Dec. 27.—Advice from Scooba and Wahalak, Miss. Wednesday night stated that quiet prevails at both these towns as well as throughout the surrounding territory, and that the troops and civil authorities are in complete control of the situation.

According to the most reliable reports, the disturbances of the last few days in Kemper county were not as serious as at first reported. The trouble is attributed to the actions of a reckless mob which, in searching for the negro who attacked Conductor Cooper aboard a Mobile & Ohio train last Sunday and shot and killed Constable O'Brien of Wahalak, killed three negroes and wounded several others.

Deputy Sheriff Feared Mob.

Feeling against the negroes was intensified by the killing by negroes of Conductor R. N. Harrison of the Mobile & Ohio railroad, at Crawfords Monday night. Believing that the mob was beyond control, Deputy Sheriff Alexander at Scooba asked that troops be sent there in order that innocent negroes might be protected. Two companies of state troops are now encamped at Scooba.

Late Wednesday evening Gov. Vardaman, accompanied by 25 members of the company of state militia stationed at Jackson, left for Scooba. Gov. Vardaman stated that there had been no fresh outbreak, but that he was going to the scene in order that he might make a personal investigation. The troops are to be relieved who have been on duty for the past 24 hours.

Negroes Flock to Scooba.

Scooba, Miss., Dec. 27.—A press representative who arrived in Scooba Wednesday night about dark, found the streets crowded with negroes who had gathered from miles around. They were highly excited; but there was nothing threatening in their demeanor. According to their statements, most of them had gathered through fear that violence would be done them if they remained in the surrounding districts, and fear alone had driven them into the town.

With companies of militia patrolling the streets, there seemed to be little apprehension among either whites or negroes. Many of the people in the town are lending the troops their heartiest cooperation in enforcing order. Among these whites the opinion is freely expressed that the entire trouble was uncalled for and could have been avoided.

The difficulty which aroused both races in this city and vicinity occurred three miles north-east of here Tuesday. Accurate information upon this trouble is not yet available here, but it is known that at least five negroes lost their lives as a result of it. There are also reported several others killed. However, these reports lack confirmation. Troops have spent the day in the town and surrounding country, and said that no arrests were made and they had learned no new facts.

FIREMAN DRAGGED FROM CAB.

Masked Men Seize Southern Pacific Employee, but Release Him.

New Orleans, Dec. 27.—John Goldreux, a Southern Pacific locomotive fireman, walked into Opcousas, La., Wednesday, after having been taken from his engine by masked men 22 miles outside of town, and after having trapped most of the night.

Four masked and armed men boarded the engine during a stop and, despite the fact that Goldreux hid himself, they found and dragged him off the engine. No violence was offered to him.

Reports from the various divisions of the road are to the effect that nearly all trains are being moved according to schedule, and the company's officials think the strike is practically broken.

BAD EARTHQUAKE IN CHILE.

Half the Town of Arica Destroyed and Other Places Damaged.

Santiago, Chile, Dec. 27.—Half of the town of Arica, in the province of Tacna, has been destroyed by an earthquake, and other towns in the neighborhood have suffered more or less severely. The seaport of Iquique, 120 miles south of Arica, was not damaged. With the recollection of the August disaster fresh in their minds, the people in the earthquake zone are greatly alarmed.

SAYS PICHON DID REPLY TO PROTEST

VATICAN LEARNS MINISTER MADE VERBAL STATEMENT.

PART OF IT IS DENIED

Summary of Archbishop Ireland's Talk on the Conflict Doesn't Please the Authorities of the Church.

Rome, Dec. 27.—In spite of the denials of the French government that it has made any reply regarding the Vatican's protest to the powers on the subject of the expulsion from France of Mgr. Montagnini, until recently secretary of the papal nunciature at Paris, the Vatican has been positively informed that M. Pichon, the minister of foreign affairs for France, has made verbal statements in answer to this protest to several diplomatic representatives at Paris, who telegraphed the minister's communication to their respective governments.

Gist of Pichon's Reply.

According to the Vatican's authority, M. Pichon said that Mgr. Montagnini had no diplomatic standing; that the papers sequestered at the nunciature were unimportant; the important documents having been removed previously, and as the French government had not allowed the papal nuncio to correspond with the French bishops, much less could it permit Mgr. Montagnini to do so.

Ireland's Statement Displeases.

The local press has published the summary which appeared in the Paris Matin of the statement, issued by Archbishop Ireland, of St. Paul, on the Franco-Vatican conflict. This summary has not found favor with the Vatican authorities as it blames the French clergy, who are praised by the pope.

The Osservatore Romano says this summary should be accepted with reserve as coming from an infected source, and explains that the correspondent of the Matin in New York may have misunderstood the archbishop.

WHEN HER BACK ACHES

A Woman Finds All Her Energy and Ambition Slipping Away.

Janesville woman knew how her aches and pains that come when the kidneys fail make life a burden. Backache, hip pains, headaches, dizzy spells, distressing urinary troubles, all tell of sick kidneys and warn you of the stealthy approach of diabetes, dropsy and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills permanently cure all these disorders. Here's proof of it in a Janesville woman's words:

Mrs. Annie Finnegan, of 208 South River street, Janesville, Wis., says: "I was almost helpless with pains in the small of my back and general physical weakness due to kidney trouble. I could not stoop and get straight again without taking hold of something, and finally I got so bad that I could not attend to my household work. About this time my attention was called to Doan's Kidney Pills and I got a box at the People's Drug company. I used them and they cured me. I consider Doan's Kidney Pills a wonderful cure for backache and kidney troubles."

FOR SALE

12,000 Acres of Timber Lands in Western Maryland.

This land is accessible to two railroads, one running through a portion of the tract; also to the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal. This property is near the markets of Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia, Harrisburg, and Pittsburgh with intermediate points. It has two sulphur springs, one of which is hot. Splendid iron ore outcrops, lying in the immediate vicinity of the Anthracite Range. It is safe to say coal will be found on the property. It carries a Sandstone Quarry of five different colors, and an inexhaustible supply of building stone for construction purposes.

Timber.

Oak, poplar, chestnut, hickory, ash, cucumber and pine. About 1/2 of this is white and chestnut oak. The remaining one-fourth being divided up among the other varieties, 8,000 acres of the tract is in the original growth, balance second growth. It is estimated to cut at least 40,000,000 feet of merchantable lumber, and 2,000 mine props, which should net delivered at railroads or canal not less than $150,000 as props, are at present selling at $9.00 per hundred, 40,000,000 feet of stumpage, located as this is, near two lines of railroad and so accessible to large markets, should be worth $3 per M., or $120,000.

Land.

The land is of excellent quality for general agricultural purposes, being especially adapted to the raising of apples, pears, peaches and all the smaller fruits and berries. The climate is excellent, water good and in great abundance from both springs and streams. Everything considered, there is no more desirable tract of land for colonization purposes in the east.

Arrangements could be made with one of the Steamship Companies, engaged in the immigration business, either in Baltimore or New York, to colonize these lands at from $5 to $10 per acre after timber has been removed. 5000 acres (2d growth) can be cut at once under contract into mine props and delivered at the railroads where they bring under contract, iron and be operated under a royalty; so no further capital will be required until built; is ready to build mill, to handle the 8,000 acres of virgin timber.

This valuable timber is offered at $12.00 per acre, subject to previous sale, with title guaranteed. Terms of payment are 1/2 cash, balance in annual installments to suit purchaser, same bearing interest from date of sale.

2500 acres 12 miles north of Warren Arkansas on the Saline river which will cut 7000 feet per acre of oak, hickory, and gum, 1000 of hickory per acre; 2500 feet of oak per acre; 3500 feet of gum; all first class timber. This land lies on Saline river, and a mill company is building a railroad, in this part of the country now. The price of this tract is $5.00 per acre. This is a snap.

POKES FUN AT CEREMONY.

Ludwig Fulda Sees Humor in Americanisms of Lecture Room.

In his "Impressions of America," Ludwig Fulda says this about the Americanisms of the lecture room: "The speaker never ascends the rostrum alone. He is always accompanied by a guard of honor. He is not allowed to mount the tribune at once, but is compelled to sit in a big chair, a sort of coronation throne. While he sits there, like a silent imperator, some well known person, a member of the committee, president of the society or head of a university, steps forward and tells all he knows about the guest of the evening by way of introduction. He tells the life story and enumerates the books which may have been written by the poor enthroned man, who tries in vain to assume a learned expression. The speaker ends by pronouncing the name of the guest in a loud voice. That is the cue for the guest to rise and ascend to the reading desk. In the meantime the man who made the introduction sits down in the vacant chair and remains there until the lecture is over. I must confess that it is not a comfortable feeling to know that while one is speaking the man in the chair, despite all the words of praise which he may have uttered, may be yawning or sleeping."

VENICE HAS NO CEMETERY.

City Buries Its Dead on the Little Island of San Michele.

The Queen of the Adriatic, as Venetians love to term the famous old city, is privileged in many respects and in one particular at least she is unique among the cities of the world. She has no cemetery. The only burying ground is the little island of San Michele, lying solitary among the lagoons at some distance from the city.

This is one of the boons which Venice owes to Bonaparte, who recognized the danger to a population from burial grounds in such a situation and had all intramural graveyards closed and ordered the dead to be taken for burial to this island resting place. The place is deserted all the year except on All Souls' day, and then there is a tremendous outflow of about 140,000 persons.

As such multitudes could never be landed from boats a boat bridge has to be built specially for the occasion, with strict regulations as to control of the living stream in its outward and backward flow.

Prosperity and Review Edition of the Gazette

Issued Monday, December 31, 1906.

The regular illustrated Chronological or Review Edition of the Gazette will be enlarged upon this year so as to fairly represent the city's progress and to give to the outside world an idea of the manufacturing and varied interests of Janesville. This issue will be known as the

Prosperity and Review Edition

It is to be hoped that every business interest in the city having the welfare of Janesville at heart will be represented in this paper.

The wide circulation of the paper and the interesting material which it will contain will make it of unusual value. The expense in its production is considerable and it is not published for great financial gain. Heretofore the supply of the Review edition has been entirely exhausted even though a large number of extra copies had been printed.

The various manufacturing and business interests of the city will be canvassed this week and it is hoped that they will authorize the insertion of matter relative to their business. Orders for papers should be telephoned or sent to the Gazette at once, so that proper reservation may be made.
